Report on Awareness Programme 'Save Girl Child; Educate Girl Child'

The NSS unit of Prerna College of Commerce organized an awareness programme on the occasion of 'National Girl Child Day' on 'Save Girl Child; Educate Girl Child' on the 24th of January, 2020 from 11 A.M to 12 P.M. The main objective of the programme was to create awareness among the people about the importance of girl child. The bigger objective was to discourage them against the female foeticide, a cancer for the society. There was a huge enthusiasm among the teachers and the students for the programme.

A well renowned and eminent personality, Advocate Smt. Nanda Parate, who works as a social activist was the chief guest. She was warmly welcomed by the Director of Prerna College of Commerce, Dr. Pravin Joshi and the Principal of Prerna College of Commerce, Dr. Bharti Deshmukh. The compering for the event was done by Miss Priyanka Malkan.

The chief guest expressed her thoughts passionately on the topic and shared concern, she also quoted the constitutional provisions for the safety and security of girls. She further elaborated that a girl is the one who plays many roles in our lives. She is our mother, our sister, our wife, our grandmother and many more. She is the cause of life, because of her we are in this world. Before a sister, a mother, a wife, she is a girl and if you are saving a girl you are saving your world. She explained that discrimination against girls in India has been going on since ages now. Even today, there are several sections of the Indian society where the girl child is treated as a liability. While several privileges are given to the boys; girls are often restricted to the confines of house and given very little or no opportunities to learn and grow in life. She emphasized the role of education is extremely important here and goes a long way in empowering women. And the process of education has to begin early in life. More and more girl children need to be sent to school provided quality and holistic education.

Advocate Smt. Nanda Parate was felicitated by presenting her a memento as a token of gratitude for sparing her precious time for the occasion. Ms. Manjiri Pathak, Ms. Kranti Shrikhande, Ms Neha Samundre, Ms. Neha Kamble, Ms. Chetna Bhoyar and non-faculty staff members worked efficiently to make the session a grand success. The session concluded with the vote of thanks given by the student of BCCA-II Dwarika Jangid. About 150 students were present on this occasion.
