3. Dr Pravin Joshi, Director of the college delivered insightful speeches on the life, principles, and legacy of Mahatma Gandhi. He emphasized the continued relevance of his teachings in today's world, encouraging the audience to embrace nonviolence and truth.
4. He elaborated further that Gandhi Jayanti celebration is a heartwarming tribute to the Mahatma's enduring legacy. It brought together people from all walks of life to reflect on the principles of truth and nonviolence.
5. Dr Liladhar Rewatkar the Officiating Principal of the college spoke about the life and life values of Lal Bahadur Shastri, the second Prime Minister of India. Lal Bahadur Shastri Jayanti celebration is a fitting tribute to a leader known for his simplicity, integrity, and commitment to the welfare of the nation.
6. He elaborated further that Lal Bahadur Shastri is known for his calm demeanour and composure even in most critical of situations. He also believed in self-reliance and putting nation first before self.
7. He also added that Lal Bahadur Shastri was a simple man who believed in action. While his simplicity is something that a human should definitely learn from, another thing to learn is his composure even in drastic situations. To have a calm mind can help us to tackle problems easily and is a desirable quality in all situations. And the campaign "Jai Jawan, Jai Kisan" was started by him only.
8. The events and activities not only honored their memory but also served as a source of inspiration for the community to embody his values in their lives.
9. . Dr Manjiri Pathak Proposed a vote of thanks.

Outcome: -

1. The celebration inspired the individuals to emulate the simplicity, honesty, and dedication to public service demonstrated by Lal Bahadur Shastri and Mahatma Gandhi. People may feel motivated to contribute positively to society.
