3. To organize workshops and awareness programs on topics like health and hygiene, digital literacy, self-employment, and leadership to empower both volunteers and the local community.
4. To instil values of teamwork, discipline, and leadership among NSS volunteers, helping them become responsible citizens and change-makers in society.
5. To foster a spirit of unity, empathy, and cooperation among volunteers and the community by promoting cultural exchange, equality, and inclusivity.

Highlights: -

Day 1:

Monday, 20th January 2025

As every year, the NSS camp commenced on January 20, 2025. We arrived at Adyali with 80 students at 2:00 PM. Upon arrival, the rooms of the Zilla Parishad Shala and the girls' accommodation were cleaned and prepared. After settling in, the volunteers placed their belongings, had tea, and in the evening, they were divided into four groups with specific daily responsibilities explained to them. The day concluded with a shared dinner.
